PATAGONIA PUMAS

Torres del Paine

A Sep 29 - Oct 5

B Oct 6 - 12

5 Guests per trip

THE PATAGONIA CAT

We will be off-roading and hiking inside and around the breathtaking Torres del Paine National Park. Surrounded by mountains and glaciers we will get up, close and personal with the largest pumas in the world.

Being wintertime in the Southern Hemisphere, chances are we will be able to capture the cat with her cubs, and against a snowy Patagonian backdrop.

YOUR HOST

Experienced greentreprenuer. Daniela Rivera Torres has co-founded Chance To Challenge; a leading sustainable travel agency based in Mexico which donates 15% of profits to water and nature-related projects. She is currently the Director of La Cañada; a sustainable and groundbreaking initiative carried out alongside the public sector and grassroots communities of Los Dinamos to regenerate the forest, create awareness and rescue the last breathing river of Mexico City, the Magdalena river.

YOUR HOST

Underwater photographer, award-winning film producer and eco-tourism activist, Jorge Cervera Hauser has been sharing his love for the ocean and its creatures for the past decade.

He has worked hand in hand with fishing communities in Baja to develop open ocean tourism as an alternative to fishing, and produced the award-winning documentary film México Pelágico.

Jorge founded a major liveaboard and ocean safari operation where he also envisioned and designed one of the top liveaboard vessels in the world. As an underwater photographer his work has been featured by National Geographic, Wired, Ocean Geographic, Apple and Samsung campaigns, among many others.

Ambassador for Discovery, Nauticam, The Outdoor Journal, Blancpain, and a two-time speaker at TEDx. Founding Board Member when the Revillagigedo National Park was created in 2017 and a former Advisory Board member at the Guadalupe Island Biosphere Reserve.
